Last week after three months of hard work, The Expressive Arts Department took to the stage and presented Charlie & The Chocolate Factory to more than 1200 people.

In addition to this year's performance was a Charity Event where 3 primary schools from Al Ain were invited along with the Hope Centre, a school for students with special needs to watch the show.

Proceeds from Expressive Arts Department fundraisers and our SRC were able to donate a Laptop to the Hope Centre.

The sound system in the hall will be given a partial facelift with the funds raised from ticket sales from Wednesday evening.

A big thank you to parents, students, the greater Al Ain community for supporting these events.

We look forward to welcoming you all back next year!
